Terms and Conditions

Read the following terms of the application for a horse drawn carriage permit and, after carefully reading, understanding, and considering the following, sign and date signifying your accord and agreement with those terms.

By signing this permit application, I am stating that all the information I have provided is true and correct, and I am agreeing to all terms and conditions stated in this permit.

My vehicle and my operation of that vehicle will comply with all state and local traffic laws. I understand that, should my application be accepted, I am being granted a privilege, not a right. I acquire no vested interest in continuing to operate a horse-drawn carriage within the City of Knoxville beyond the stated terms of this permit. I understand that neither the City of Knoxville nor any of its instrumentalities, agents, or employees makes any representations as to continued rights to operate within the City of Knoxville or to extend the duration of the permit or grant additional operation permits in the future. I accept the fact that the Animal Control Board may impose restrictions on where and when my horse-drawn carriage may be used while this permit is in effect. I acknowledge that the Animal Control Board will cancel and withdraw this permit if the Animal Control Board finds that any information I have provided in this permit application is not completely accurate or if any one of the terms or conditions of this permit are violated or if any applicable law is violated, specifically section 5-104 of the Code of the City of Knoxville. I absolve the City of Knoxville of all liability resulting from any damage or harm that I or another granted authority under this permit might cause, by negligence or otherwise, in the enjoyment of the privileges granted therein. I assert that I have read and understand the relevant provisions of the City of Knoxville Animals Ordinances in Chapter 5 of the City of Knoxville Code and agree to comply with all relevant provisions of those ordinances governing the care and treatment of the animals in question and understand the criminal and civil consequences of violating those ordinances. I further understand that, in the event of a public health emergency, I agree to immediate compliance with directions of public health officials and agree to allow those officials to enter, seize control, and/or close my operations if a situation threatening the public health develops or is discovered.

Please attach a description of the first route your horse-drawn carriage will be taking, the date(s) it will take that route, and time(s) your horse-drawn carriage will be operating. (see § 5-104(b))

The following must also be attached to this permit application and is required for approval of this permit application:

- 1) A copy of a Tennessee Driver's License.
- 2) Proof of completion of an approved carriage driving training course or proof that you have met with a Young-Williams Animal Services Officer and have demonstrated competent horse-drawn carriage driving skills.
- 3) Proof that each horse to be used to pull the horse-drawn carriage is medically fit to do such work and photos identifying each horse that will be used.
- 4) Proof of $2,000,000 per incident / $3,000,000 aggregate coverage general liability insurance for injuries sustained during the operation of the horse-drawn carriage. The insurance policy must also include a minimum $5000.00 medical payments coverage which will pay physically injured passengers regardless of whether the horse-drawn carriage is at fault. Proof of insurance shall be provided by both a certificate of insurance and an indenture that names the City of Knoxville, its officials, officers, employees, and volunteers as additional insured and also for waiver of subrogation.
